the 24th May, lat. 10 22, long. 109,9 The following are the particulars of the los of the "Childers." This celebrated clipper ship was despatched from Foochow on the 30th ulto, for London with upwards of a million of pounds of New Congon. She was in charge of a regular pilot and in tow of the trig Fulcany when a B P.M., the weather being fine and clear, the ship progressing very fast with sail set t assist the tug, she was run right on short on the outer hank. The velocity with which she was run on shore rendered all hop of getting her off futile. The tide was falling and the after part of the ship being aftent she broke her back almost immediately. The cargo was discharged into the tug with a speed, but in vain. By the time a hundred tons had been thus disposed of, the rest wa under water.

The pilot blames the master of the tug and the master of the tug blames the pilo It seems to be most reprehensible act of groscarelessness on the part of both of them concarned, and we hope they will be made a
